Stewardship

Steward Blessing

"My God will fully supply whatever you need..."

— PHILIPPIANS 4:19

Stewardship
a way of life

God really does provide for those who are grateful and generous. This is very difficult for people that don't live a stewardship lifestyle to believe. People are skeptical and say it's just coincidence. If you are skeptical, try living a stewardship lifestyle for just one month - be generous with your gifts of time in prayer, talent in charitable works, and treasure, then see how God provides for your needs.

New Trustees at Christ Our Light

I am pleased to announce that Tom Sheehan and Judy Marino will serve as the Trustees of Christ Our Light for the term of October 1, 2026 through September 30, 2027.

As Trustees, Tom and Judy will assist and support me as Pastor in caring for the temporal welfare of our parish. Tom will also serve as Chairperson of our Finance Council, while Judy will continue to serve as a member of the Finance Council and as Recording Secretary of our Pastoral Council.

I look very much forward to working with both of them in these important roles. Tom and Judy are devoted parishioners who bring tremendous gifts to Christ Our Light. Their experience and knowledge in leadership, business, administration, education and finance will be a great blessing to our parish community.

At the same time, I want to express my profound gratitude to Mary Hennessy and Jim Rivard, who have each given more than six years of dedicated service as Trustees and members of our Finance Council. Their commitment, wisdom, and generosity have been invaluable to Christ Our Light, and the support they have given both to our parish and to me personally as Pastor has truly been a gift. I am deeply grateful for all they have done.

Please join me in thanking Mary and Jim for their many years of faithful service and in welcoming Tom and Judy as they begin this new chapter of leadership and service to Christ Our Light.

With gratitude and every blessing,
Fr. John

Question of the Week

LIVING IN THE LIGHT

The Word

Reading for October 11, 2026

Matthew 22:1-14

Adults: In what ways do your actions reflect the call to live your faith?

We offer this form of Lectio Divina (sacred reading) for pondering Scripture and for faith sharing with family members and other people.

- Listen/ Read (Lectio): Ponder God's word and listen for what touches your heart.
- Meditate (Meditatio): Attend to what you notice. Allow God's word to resonate in you.
- Speak/Share (Oratio): Prayerfully share with Jesus or with the group your thoughts and feelings.
- Rest in God's presence (Contemplatio): Notice God's presence and be still, surrounded by God's love.
- Choose to act (Actio): Trusting in God's nearness, commit to action rooted in love.

Youth: How do you work to be a follower of Jesus each day?

Children: How can you show others you are a follower of Jesus?

Join us on Thursday October 29 at 7:30 pm in the Parish Center's St John's room to discuss Mailman: My Wild Ride Delivering the Mail in Appalachia and Finally Finding Home by Stephen Starring Grant. Recap: At fifty, Steve Grant was laid off and needed health insurance fast as he had cancer. Which is how he found himself a rural letter carrier in Appalachia, back in his hometown after 25 years away. Soon, he carried a lot more than mail. By sharing stories with strangers and connecting neighbors with loved ones, Steve learns the power of community in this 'uproarious and utterly charming' memoir.

Healing and Hope

Catholic Mental Health Sunday - October 11, 2026

A holistic approach to wellness recognizes that mind, body, spirit, and emotions all need to be in balance for optimum health. The whole person is made up of these parts, which are interdependent on one another, and if one part isn't working properly, all the other parts will be affected. Imbalances can be harmful to overall health.

Catholic Mental Health Sunday, begun in 2023, is held the first Sunday following World Mental Health Day. Handouts of local resources will be available at the Welcome Desk.

Saint Dymphna (7th century) is known as patroness of persons with mental health conditions. A church in Geel, Belgium was built in her honor and many made pilgrimages there, seeking to be cured of mental illness.

We pray: Good Saint Dymphna, great wonder worker in every affliction of mind and body, we humbly implore your powerful intercession with Jesus through Mary, for the health of the sick. Saint Dymphna, patroness of persons with mental health conditions, always look out for those men and women, for their healing and recovery, and for an end to stigma and indifference in society. Amen. Saint Dymphna, pray for us!

A special novena for mental health starts October 10 and ends October 18, the Catholic feast of Saint Luke, who is the patron of health care. In solidarity with the US Bishops and other Catholics across the US, you are invited to join in prayer at: <https://www.usccb.org/mental-health-novena>

"No peaceful society can afford to neglect either respect for life or the fact that there is an integrity to creation." - St. John Paul II

CREATION CARE AND RESPECT LIFE: A CONNECTION

Life and Dignity of the Human Person and Care for God's Creation are separate but interconnected themes in Catholic Social Teaching. These teachings call upon us to respect human life. Many examples demonstrate the relationship between environmental degradation and negative impacts on human life, which are cause for action. Poor air quality from industrial pollution and burning fossil fuels ends life prematurely for 100,000 Americans each year. Carbon pollution contributes to worsening droughts, more intense hurricanes, and flooding...all of which cut lives short or cost additional lives. Respecting human life and dignity calls us to be better stewards of the environment. In caring for the environment, we are also acting on our special responsibility to the poor, the vulnerable, and the unborn of future generations who are most affected and least heard.
